(Schedule A) Entrance Exams for Master Course

Refer to the Guidelines for Applicants to the 2022 Master Course of Graduate School of Frontier Sciences

1. Application period: June 9(Wed) to 17(Thu)

Online submissions will be accepted.

2. Documentary Examination

Applicants must submit a 1-page document (A4 paper) including the applicant's academic achievements such as what the applicant has learned until now and research themes which the applicant wants to study in Graduate School.

Deadline: August 3, 12:00

Submission Methods: We will announce to the applicants where to be uploaded for the electronic file.

Successful candidates will be announced around August 6 in the web page of AMS.

3. English Examination

All applicants must submit a TOEFL score report. The score report must reflect tests taken after September 1, 2019. As for TOEFL-iBT, we use the Test Date score (The MyBest score is not referred). Only the scores of Reading and Listening are referred for screening. FYI: The number of applications to TOEFL iBT®Home Edition seem to be increasing. We would like to recommend proceeding with necessary procedures ASAP.

We accept a score report of TOEFL ITP® Plus for China Solution.

Submission Deadline of the score sheet: August 3, 12:00

Submission Methods of the references: We will announce to the applicants where to be uploaded for the Test Taker Score Report.

4. Primary Written Subject Areas Examination: August 17(Tue)

For the applicants who have passed the documentary examination, written examinations of subject areas will be conducted. The examinations will be held at the Kashiwa Campus. The applicants must come to the lecture room on the 6th floor of the building of the Kashiwa Research Complex by 13:00. There is a possibility that it takes until about 18:00 to finish the whole schedule of the examination.

For the applicants who live abroad and cannot come to the examination venue, or who have an underlying disease and are at high risk of aggravation of the new coronavirus infection, online examinations may be conducted. We will contact to the applicants to whom the online examinations are conducted by E-mail on June 21st or later.

The pass/fail results of the English and primary examinations will be announced in the web page of AMS on August 27(Fri) at 12:00.

5. Secondary Oral Examination: August 30(Mon)

To the applicants who have passed the English and primary examinations, Oral Examination will be conducted online. (A terminal that can communicate audio and camera images and a network environment are necessary.)

This oral examination aims to assess whether the applicant has sound knowledge and abilities to become a successful graduate student.

6. Unofficial announcement of the results from AMS: August 30(Mon)

The results will be unofficially announced in the web page of AMS.
